

Udall Family Fellowship for 2016-2017

The Arizona Prosecuting Attorneys' Advisory Council (APAAC) is pleased to announce the Udall Family Fellowship for 2016-2017. In honor of the Udall Family legacy and commitment to public safety and public service, the fellowship is a hands-on prosecution experience designed to encourage a career in prosecution. Many Udall family members were prosecutors, including Morris Udall who served as the Pima County Attorney and Steven G. Udall who loyally functioned as Apache County Attorney and served on the Arizona Prosecuting Attorneys' Advisory Council for decades.

What:

Open to Arizona Law students who will be 3Ls in 2016-2017. This prestigious one- year fellowship includes the Prosecution Clinic (LAW 696c) and work at four prosecuting agencies. The Fellow receives 10 pass/fail credits along with a $10,000 stipend.

Administered by the James E. Rogers College of Law Clinical Program Dean Willie Jordan-Curtis. The normal prerequisites for the clinical program requires:

- Applicants must be in good standing.
- Evidence must have been completed prior to Fall 2016.
- Legal Profession or Legal Ethics Seminar is required. Applicants must either have completed or be enrolled in one of these classes contemporaneously with the clinic.
- A detailed (criminal) background check.
- Classroom component or individual meetings per standard clinic practice.
- Time Sheets.
- Written reflection paper.

Schedule:

- Summer 2016 – Enroll in 1 unit of Law 696c, Criminal Prosecution Clinic, and Work 200 hours at the City of Tucson Prosecutions' office.
- August – December 2016 – Enroll in 4 units of Law 696c, Criminal Prosecution Clinic; work for 150 hours with the Pima County Attorney's Office. (And register for 1 unit of Independent Study for either the Fall 2016 or the Spring 2017 semester for a total of 10 total hours of credit.)
- January to April 2017 – Enroll in 4 units of Law 696c, Criminal Prosecution Clinic; work for 150 hours with the US Attorney's Office.
- Attend APAAC's Annual Prosecutor Conference in Tucson in June to network with the state's prosecutors.

Application process:

Materials should be sent to:

Kim MacEachern, Staff Attorney at APAAC, 1951 W. Camelback Road, Suite 202, Phoenix, AZ 85015. Candidates may submit a scanned copy of the package, including the signed application, by email to Kim.MacEachern@apaac.az.gov.

All materials must be received by 5:00 p.m. on Monday, December 14, 2015.

- Signed Fellowship Application;
- Resume;
- Brief statement as to why you are interested in prosecution in Arizona as a career;
- Statement detailing what the most important issue facing the Arizona criminal justice system today; and an Unofficial transcript.

A select number of applicants may be contacted for personal interviews to be conducted in Tucson shortly after classes resume in January 2016. Selection is anticipated to be finalized by the end of the first week in February 2016.